STIRRING FINISH MARKS DECISION OF STAKE RACE AT PALMETTO PARK

Carlton G., Republican and Lochiel Placed in Order Named-Favorites Make Good Showing in Soft Going.

Charleston, S. C., February S.—The Charleston Hotel Handicap, one mile, carrying a gross value of $1,200, was the feature of today's card at Palmetto Park and resulted in one of the best contests of the season. Carlton G., Republican, Lochiel and Milton B., finished short heads apart after a spirited struggle that lasted for the entire length of the stretch. Carlton G., the winner, ruled a slight favorite over Republican and Lochiel. He had the best of racing luck to aid him to victory. Milton B. indicated by his running that he was best at the weight assignment. He was almost thrown when running fast three furlongs from the finish. After recovering his stride, he was sent around the others, finished like a whirlwind and would have won at a longer distance. The Frank E. Brown pair, Volthorpe and Merry Lad, ran disappointingly and ceased to be factors at the end of six furlongs. Rain, which fell last night, moistened the track considerably and made the going slow. Because of the changed conditions there were many withdrawals, the closing two races suffering most. Fine weather prevailed and was instrumental in bringing out the full strength of race-goers here. The cifort to transfer the ring to "independent" operators failed because of the lack of layers. It had been expected and it seemed sure last night that eight outside layers could be mustered to draw in but when the appointed time came this afternoon was attended by a stiff loss to the layers. The prices were rather short and the betting was confined mostly to two or three starters in each race. The success of five choices during the afternoon was attended by a stiff loss to the layers. The H. O. Comstock band of two-year-olds brought here from California were offered for sale by auction in the paddock before the racing today and several of the colts attracted spirited bidding. Three in the lot were bid in, their owner considering the bids for them too low. They were the stars of the consignment and consisted of Salvation Rey. Salvor and Salon. They were hid up to $1,700, $1,200 and $1,000 respectively. Salon and Lady Innoceace were later disposed of by private sale to J. W. Messervy, a local turfman. Those sold by auction with the prices and their respective purchasers were: Preserver, $850, A. R. Brester: Salvadora, $250, F. E. Baird; Carbureter, $1,000, F. Bray; Salvation Nell, $275, S. The Palmetto Park meeting is finally settling into its stride. The past few days has seen decided improvement in every direction and there is every reason to believe that the improvement is of a permanent nature and will continue. The attendance has been running ahead of last season's figures for the corresponding period and there is a steadily growing local interest in the sport. Racing enthusiasis from various parts of the country have also been arriving steadily for several days.

The management is anxious for a discontinuance of the present method of running the betting ring, with agreed prices. They realize that an open ring would result in an immediate and lasting improve-

RICHEST AMERICAN STAKES OF THE YEAR TO BE RUN IN KENTUCKY

General Manager John Hachmeister Announces $10,000 Added Handicap for Douglas Park - Latonia Derby to Carry Value of $6,000 Added

Louisville, Ky., February 8.—John Hachmeister, general manager of the Douglas Park Jockey Club of Louisville, and the Laronia Jockey Club at Latonia, this evening made an important announcement in connection with racing over these two courses the conductor with racing over these two courses the conductor will close on March 8 next. The stakes at Douglas Park are exceptionally attractive in the added money. The Kentucky Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a quarter, will carry an added value of $10,000. The Memorial Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs, will have $1,500 added. The Spring Trial Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, will be of the value of $2,500 added. The Speculation Stakes, selling, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth, $1,500 added.

The Latonia Jockey Club stakes are:

Inaugural Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth, $2,600 added.

The Latonia Jockey Club stakes are:
Inaugural Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a sixteenth; $2,000 added.
Latonia Derby, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and a half; $6,000 added.
Clipsetta Stakes, for two-year-old fillies, five furlongs; $2,000 added.
Merchants' Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile; $1,500 added.
Harold Stakes, for two-year-old edits and geldings, five furlongs; $2,000 added.
Quickstep Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, six furlongs; $2,000 added.
Valuation Stakes, for two-year-olds, five and one-half furlongs; $1,500 added.
Independent Handicap, for three-year-olds and upward, one mile and three-sixteenths; $2,500 added.
Cincinnati Trophy, for two-year-olds, six furlongs; $3,000 added.

The minimum purse value will be $500.

Manager Hachmeister announced that entries to the stake events will be received only with the understanding that the officers of the club reserve the right to refuse the entry or the acceptance of a transfer of any entry for any cause and without notice to the subscriber. No entry will be received except on this condition:

That all disputes, claims and objections, arising out of the racing of with respect to the interpretation of the conditions of any stakes shall be decided by the officers of the club or those whom the club appoints, and their decision upon all points shall be final.

The Kontucky, Handiege, promises to be one thad.

The Kentucky Handicap promises to be one of the most brilliant turf features in America. It will bring together the Kentucky Derby eligibles, among which will be Hawthorn, Hobnob, Frederick L., Helios and all of the other really great three-year-olds in America. It will not be exceeded in inportance and interest by any event in America this season.

Manager Hachmeister is highly enthusiastic relative to the racing this year in Kentucky. There will be at least sixty days of thoroughbred sport, opening at Lexington about April 29. The Kentucky Derby will be run at Churchill Downs, Saturday, May 10, when thirteen days' racing at that course will begin. There probably will be twelve days of racing at Douglas Park and twenty-four days at Latonia. Manager Hachmeister promises racing of higher quality than the patrons of Douglas Park and the Latonia Jockey Club have ever before enjoyed. This, because of the superior class of horses recently developed, and the rich values of the stakes and purses.

clineinari Trophy, for two-year-olds, six fur longs; $3,000 added.

ment. The present method was a necessity from the start, and was entered upon mutil such time as eight Independent layers should indicate a disposition to cut in. As a further evidence of the association's sincerity in wanting independents to operate, several offers of substantial slze, from persons who aimed to continue the syndicate style of operation for the entire meeting, have been introd down without serious consideration. Word has also been passed to prospective layers that in the event of eight going on, the maximum charge for the cut-tin would be $200 and that this charge would be decreased proportionately as the number of layers in creased. It is likely that within the next week there will be enough layers ready to operate to enable the management to open the ring.

While not so heavy as last season, the volume of speculation is sufficiently ample and exceeds $40,000 daily. This, too, in spite of the fact that the big fellows have been going slowly. The racing has been wholesome and no word of complaint has been heard to date. The stewards have been vigilant and are unlikely to allow any turf offenses to escape unnoticed. So far the only drastic discipline meted out by them has been in the case of jockey Mondon, who was suspended for ten days for an indifferent ride on Chemulpo. Form has been well observed, as indicated by the numerous short-priced winners that have scored since the meeting began.

The casteruers here have not given up all hope for a revival of racing on the metropolitan courses this season. They believe that there will be racing at least three days each week on the Piping Rock. Belmont Park, Sheepshead Bay and Empire City tracks. They are confident that the Court of Appeals will sustain the lower courts in the decision absolving directors from liability for violations of the betting law.

Frank E. Brown, after the close of the Palmette Park meeting, will ship to Lexington to await the opening of racing there with his

RULING COMES TOO LATE TO AFFECT STAKES.

Action of Racing Commission Increasing Values in Kentucky Will Apply Only to Purses This Spring.

Lexington, Ky., February 8.—The action of the Kentucky State Racing Commission at its meeting last Thursday in promulgating an amendment to rule 13, which carries with it an increase in the amount of money to be added to stakes and purses by the licensed associations conducting race meetings in Kentucky came as a result of the direct appeal of breeders, owners and trainers of horses and the fact that the commission has recognized their claims as just has afforded them much satisfaction. However, it does not appear that the horsemen are to have the benefit of the stake increase that will come with the adoption of the amendment during the springs meetings here and at Louisville, since the entries for the stakes to be run at these meetings have already been announced to close March 1, and action on the amendment cannot be had until March 16.

It was expected by some of the horsemen that the Kentucky Association would announce a voluntary increase of the added money to four of its stakes from $600 to $750 after the meeting of the commission, but such expectations have not been fulfilled as yet

There are some expressions of doubt as to the right of the commission to designate the minimum of the amount to be added to stakes and purses by the various associations, but inasmuch as the matter has been undertaken by the commission, it is reasonable to presume that the members know the ground upon which they are advancing. It is worthy of remembrance that the commission has won both times a racing association has questioned the legality of its acts and the constitutionality of the law under which its operates.

Secretary G. D. Wilson of the Kentucky Association, who sold his Iroquois Farm this week to Paul Lansing of Georgetown, owns the stallion Stalwart, eight broodmares and eight yearlings. He said today that he intends later in the year to sell these. The mares are Modreda, the dam of Firestone: Northumbria, sister to Engenia Burch; Variant, by Disgnise—Cap and Bells; Alhanette, dam of All Red; Wedding Day, dam of four winners; Tin Cup, Torrid and Etelka.

President Catesby Woodford of the Kentucky Association has annonneed his intention of disposing of all his horses this year and retiring from the ranks of the breeders. He has now approximately sixty head of thoroughbreds including the stallion Miller, broodmares and weanlings at his Raceland Farm in Bourbon County. He sold a number of the get of Star Shoot to John E. Madden last fall. He still owns a half interest in Star Shoot, which is this year at John E. Madden's Hamburg Place. Mr. Madden owns the other half interest.

Johnson N. Camden's Kentucky Futurity winner and Kentucky Derby candidate, Helios, is at the local track in charge of "Tiny" Keezick, trainer Jack Keene's Russian assistant, and he is looking decidedly robust. He has grown a great deal bodily, but has not increased much in height. He is a big horse on short legs and is as hard as a nail. Trainer Keene will return soon from Juarez to begin the preparation of this son of Star Shoot and Hindoo Rose and he will bring with him the good three-year-old Lord Marshall, which he bought last senson from Mr. Camden, and which is also to be a candidate for the Kentucky Perby.

William P. Seully, who has figured much at the sales in this vicinity for the past half-dozen years as a buyer of and dealer in the cheaper grade of thoroughterd horses, has decided to take a chance in racing and has rented a stable at the Kentucky Associat Renew, br. c, by Samson—Toddy Smith.

There are some good prospects among these youngsters, particularly the Peter Quince filly. She was bred by J. N. Camden and worked a quarter last fall in :23%, but she had unsightly knees and on that account Mr. Camden discarded her. Mr. Scully seems to have strengthened her knees. In the opinion of horsemen who know her, this filly is likely to win, if she does not break down.

Dan T. Morris has returned to Lexington from Paris and announced today that he will again train a public stable at the Kentucky Association track. He has been out of the sport for three years.

William Houston, one of the old school of thoroughbred trainers, has gone to Captain Hancock's Ellerslie Stud in Virginia to took after the stallions and broodmates and superintend the preparation of the yearlings for the sales ring. For several years he has been with John Splan's stable of trotters in this city.

he has been with John Splan's stable of trotters in this city.

Trainer Charles H. Hughes, who returned from New York yesterday with the good horse Sebago, visited Red Bank, N. J., while away and he says the Hallenbeck horses, in charge of trainer Frank M. Taylor, are wintering well. He says Mr. Hallenbeck refused $20,000 for Adams Express a short wille ago.

Superintendent James P. Ross opened the mile track at the Kentucky Association grounds this week for training operations and these crisp mornings it has been well occupied with horses at exercise. The weather this week was extremely cold. Phil T. Chinn, who recently returned from France, is here looking over the young material in the interest of some eastern friends who may buy several if Mr. Chinn finds suitable animals.

Ed W. Heffuer, of Sheepshead Bay, today bought from T. P. Hayes the yearling chestnut colt by Ornament—Algie M., for $4,000. This colt is considered one of the best young racing prospects in Kentucky.

HIGHBRIDGE MAKES PROMISING DEBUT.

London, Eng., February 8.—At Sandown Park today the Prince of Wales Steeplechase, at three miles, for $1,500, was won by the seven-year-oid gelding Glen Heston, carrying 161 pounds. The seven-year-old American gelding Highbridge, with 172 pounds up, was second, and the seven-year-old borse Strangways, 153 pounds, was third. Glen Heston was the favorite at 9 to 4, while it was 4 to 1 against Strangways, and 100 to 8 against Highbridge. The latter is the only American steeplechaser in training for the Grand National at Liverpool next month. This was the American horse's tryout. He carried top weight and made a distinetly good showing. In the last half mile Highbridge for a short period held the lead.

PURSES TO MUD RUNNERS

MISS JEAN AND INQUIETA SCORE AS FAVOR-ITES OVER THE JUAREZ COURSE.

Track Is Exceedingly Heavy and Day Raw and Cold -Jockey Peak Arrives to Ride R. F.

Carman Horses,

El Paso, Tex., February 8.—A cold raw day and a heavy sticky track were the conditions that prevalled at Juarez this afternoon. The attendance increased over yesterday's and the volume of money handled by the layers far exceeded their expectations. Two winning favorites rewarded their expectations. Two winning favorites rewarded the talent. Miss Jean, which on a previous occasion demonstrated her liking for soft going, found conditions just suited to her and scored with great case. She was one of the two winning favorites, inquieta being the other. The latter was backed into favoritism on the strength of her partiality for the mud. The other winners were at fairly lucrative odds.

Jockey C. Peak arrived today from Charleston and will ride here under contract to R. F. Carman. Peak can ride at 107 pounds. He was suspended last summer at Latonia by Judge Price for rough riding, but the suspension was lifted during the Churchill Downs fall meeting. He is an acceptable acquisition to the riders here.

Durin was sold just before the first race to Joseph Schreiber by C. W. Carroll, who trains for A. B. Spreckels. The colt ran well for a short distance in the bad going, then fell back.

Jockey Gross was taken sick after riding in the fourth race and his engagements for the last two five days by starter Cassidy for disobedience at the post.

W. G. Marshall of Montgomery, Ala., brother-inlaw of presiding steward C. F. Price, paid his first visit to the Juarez course today. He is a traveling passenger agent for the L. & N. Railroad. He is en a leave-of-absence and will probably remain here for fortight.

H. D. BROWN'S CUBAN PLANS.

Charleston, S. C., February S.—H. D. Brown, manager of the Laurel track, who has been in the limelight of late because of his controversy with the Jockey Club, was a visitor here this week, en route to Havana, where he goes in quest of a concession to operate a track for winter racing. Mr. Brown thinks that the time is now opportune for the establishing of racing in the Cuban capital on a scale that will command the approval of the most fastidious and likewise prove a financial success to the promoters. Mr. Brown plans to have racing at Havana for a period of sixty days beginning in January, when the tourist season is at its height. He contemplates beginning his meeting immediately at the close of one of thirty days' duration here in the fall, with the idea that after the close of the Havana meeting the horsemen could be transferred back to Charleston for another meeting of thirty days preceding the spring meeting at Jamestown. Mr. Brown's plan virtually provides for a fall, winter and spring circuit consisting of Jamestown. Charleston and Havana. The horsemen could be transported to Havana from Charleston by specially chartered steamers for a nominal sum. Arrangements could also be made for the transfer to and from Jamestown to Charleston by steamer if the horsemen preferred it.

STEEPLECHASE LICENSES GRANTED.

New York, February S.—The board of stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association, at a meeting held Thursday, elected John R. Fell to membership in the association. Licenses were granted to the following trainers: James Owens, T. F. Cahill, Silas Veitch, D. F. Kinney and W. H. Henry. The jockey licenses approved were on the applications of James Lynch, William Kohler, William Booth, E. Tice and E. Klenck.

The stewards present at the meeting were Harry S. Page, Henry J. Morris, Joseph E. Widener, Henry W. Buil and J. W. Burden.

HAVRE DE GRACE STAKES TO CLOSE MARCH 10

The twelve attractive stakes opened by the Harford Agriculture and Breeders' Association for the spring meeting at Havre de Grace, Md., April 18 to May 1, will close for entries on Monday, March 10, with Fred Rehberger? racing secretary, 390 Fulton street, Brooklyn, N. Y. The conditions of the stakes are framed to suit all classes of horses and should provide sport of an excellent calibre. For particulars of the various stakes offered, owners of race horses should consult the official announcement of the club which appears in another column of this issue.

JUAREZ MEETING LIKELY TO BE EXTENDED

Sport Is Prospering at Mexican Course and March 30 Probably Will Be Closing Date.

Frobably Will Be Closing Date.

El Paso, Tex., February S.—Practically all of the stars among the 800 or more horses now quartered at the Juarez track will do considerable racing this month and next before the wind-up of the 1912-1913 season. The cracks that have not as yet raced will all be started a tiane or two here as a prellminary to spring racing in Kentucky.

The season here, though well in its second balf, is not yet at its height, and hardly an afternoon passes without a dozen or more new faces of prompasses without a dozen or more new faces of prompasses without a dozen or more new faces of prompasses without a dozen or more new faces of prompasses without a dozen or more new faces of prompasses. Not a regular of any importance was drawn away by the opening of the Charleston meeting, nor two spent here, they proceed and others take their places. Not a regular of any importance was drawn away by the opening of the Charleston meeting, nor will a stable leave here for the South Carolina course this winter, in all probability. Though it is too early as yet for an official announcement, it is reported that the present Juarez meeting will not close this season until Sunday, March 30, which will make a total of 116 racing days. The 100 days always set for the racing here would bring the present meeting to a close on March 14, this early data been conducted every day in the week. It is a well-known fact that none of the horsemen would care to leave here so early as the middle of March, and as Manager M, J. Winn has always advertised 100 romore days of racing for this meeting and every thing is moving along like well-oiled machinery, it is regarded as a certainty that the meeting will give an abundance of time for resting of horses going from here to Kentucky for the Lexington, Lonis will an abundance of time for resting of horses going from here to Kentucky for the Lexington, Lonis will easily a duplicate of the Mabey bill, which passed the lower house, was amended by the beat least extended to the date above even if the former track should open earlier than April 26, which is not at all likely. The present meeting at Juarez has beyond doubt established the Mexico course as the leading winter race track of this country for years to come. From now on, it will continue to grow more and more important as the years advance.

J. A. Shannon has purchased for a private price from J. A. Seekington the two-year-old filly Lovers' Lane, by Atkins—Princess Tulane, by His Highness. This filly has only started once here and then she ran unplaced, but she has shown well in private trials. She is the second foal of her noted dan.

then she ran unplaced, but she has shown well in private trials. She is the second foal of her noted dam.

L. P. Doerhoefer, who went home to Louisville last week, after spending more than two months at the Jockey Club Juarez track, will at once take up and begin galloping Jimmie Gill, Baron De Kalb, Tillie's Nightmare, Ursula Thompson and George Karme, all of which have been turned out in Kentucky since last fall. Shelby West, his racing partner, and the latter's father. P. M. West, who assists in training the Doerhoefer & West stable, will remain at Juarez to race out the season with Gold of Ophir, Ursula Emma, Jack Ellis and Senator James, and then take the string back home to join the other division of the stable at Churchill Downs, Mr. Doerhoefer will make no attempt to give the string in Kentucky any severe training until Mr. West returns to Louisville with the Juarez division. This Louisville stable has enjoyed a prosperous season here and will be regular patrons of Juarez racing in future.

Al Austin has decided to retire his good race mares Florence A. and Marie Hyde to the stud. A Texns breeder has been endeavoring to secure the pair, but so far has not met the price Mr. Austin has set on the daughters of Handcuff and Sain. If he does not succeed in disposing of them be fore the present meeting is over, he probably will ship them to California and have them mated with Salvation, the sire of Jim Basey and other high-class winners. The latter stallion is one son of the mighty Salvator that has made good in the stud. The speedy filly, Mrs. Gamp, has been fired for knee trouble by Dr. C. Cann, and her owner, Frank Farrar, has decided to make no attempt to race her until mid-summer.

John S. McDonald, who is abroad, recently bought eighteen broodmares in different parts of England. The two-year-olds The Crown and Copernicus were shipped last week from this country to join the stable of Louis Winans, in England. The Crown is a brother to Star Charter.
